

Bad Stomachs AND Torpid Livers

RESPONSIBLE FOR NINETY-FIVE PER CENT. OF ALL DISEASES

"Seven Barks" Cures or No Pay

The cause of nearly every disease can be directly traced to clogged and inactive stomachs, livers or intestines. Biliousness, indigestion, gout, rheumatism, headaches, insomnia, kidney and bladder troubles, and all liver complaints, emanate from one of the digestive or drainage organs. These organs must be kept constantly in action to insure uninterrupted good health, and there is no remedy or corrective, so harmless and so certain as "Seven Barks."

There is no ailment originating from any of the organs of the digestive and drainage system, but what will readily succumb to the use of "Seven Barks"—a purely vegetable preparation, put up on a noted German physician's original formula. It is not a patent medicine.

If any one with stomach, liver or kidney troubles will call at our store and get a bottle of "Seven Barks," take as directed—and if all the benefit one should expect is not derived, no charge will be made. We are not taking chances in making this offer, for we know the character of the remedy and we are satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE

Banish War, the Keynote of Addresses.

R. T. PAINE IS PRESIDENT

He Characterizes Secretary of State Hay
as the World's Greatest Statesman—Messages From Abroad.

Boston, Oct. 4.—The first formal business meeting of the 15th International Peace Congress was called to order in Tremont Temple today. The deliberative sessions will continue through Friday morning. The opening address by Edwin D. Mend of Boston was the first feature of the programme for today's meeting.

In responding to his election as president of the congress, Mr. Paine welcomed the delegates to Boston. When referring to Secretary Hay's address of yesterday, he characterized Mr. Hay as the "greatest statesman in the world." He was interrupted by vigorous applause.

President Paine then called upon several of the foreign delegates. All were given cordial welcome. First was Mr. Honore Delahaye, of the Belgian Senate.

"Herein America," he said, "your 45 states live in peace and concord. When will it be the same with the countries of Europe? When people say to their rulers, 'We want men to walk in peace!'"

The next speaker was Professor Th. Ruysen of Aix, France, President of the Association de la Paix par le Droit.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale delivered a brief speech and offered a set of resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, extending the greeting of the congress to the Episcopal general convention and inviting all the delegates of the latter to take part in the deliberations of the peace conference.

FIFTY YEARS WEDDED.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hutchinson of Randolph Remembered.

Randolph, Oct. 5.—A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hutchinson called on them Tuesday afternoon, it being the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson are at present enjoying good health.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water every two hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered until misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can see this in behalf of suffering humanity."

POSTMASTER GENERAL DEAD

End Came Suddenly at 6.10
Last Evening

AFTER A SINKING SPELL

Wonderful Vitality Shown by Postmaster
General Payne a Surprise to Everyone—End Was Peaceful.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Postmaster General Payne died at 6:10 o'clock last evening. The Postmaster General was taken with a sinking spell at 2:45 from which he failed to recover. The members of the family were summoned at that hour as well as the pastor, Dunlap. They were all at his bedside when death came.

Mr. Payne had been in poor health for at least two years but his last illness covered only seven days, an attack of heart trouble last week precipitating the end at a time when after a rest he seemed to have recovered a small measure of his vitality impaired by years of arduous labor.

The funeral services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church in this city next Friday morning and at 3:15 that afternoon the body will be taken to Milwaukee where services will be held Saturday.

REPUBLICANS RESPONSIBLE.

Bourke Cochran Says They Are The Cause of Southern Lynchings.

New York, Oct. 3.—Congressional district conventions were held by the Democrats in various districts in New York and Brooklyn tonight. Former Senator Charles A. Towne was named in the 14th district. The present congressman from this district is Ira E. Rieder, a Democrat.

William Randolph Hearst was re-nominated in the 11th and W. Bourke Cochran in the 12th.

At the convention in the 10th district the present incumbent, William Sulzer, was unanimously chosen.

In the twelfth district Congressman Cochran made an address in which he told of the principles the Democratic party was fighting for and severely criticized the Republicans, saying among other things, that the party now in power in the nation, is responsible for lynchings in the South.

Higgins Notified.

Glean, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Francis Wayland Higgins was today formally notified of his nomination for Governor by the Republicans of New York.

Mr. Higgins in his speech of acceptance expressed his thanks for the honor and paid many tributes to President Roosevelt and the administration of the Republican party.

SENATOR HOAR BURIED.

Funeral in His Native Village of Concord —Interment in Sleepy Hollow.

Concord, Mass., Oct. 4.—The historic town of Concord, the birthplace of Senator George Frisbee Hoar, took on mourning garb today as a tribute to her distinguished citizen, whose body was borne here to be buried in Sleepy Hollow cemetery. Throughout the town business was generally interrupted. Following the services, after the body had lain in state an hour or more, it was removed to Sleepy Hollow cemetery and interred by the side of his wife, Mrs. Ruth Ann Hoar.

BURLINGTON MAN HANGED HIMSELF

John Fondroy of Lakeside Commits Suicide in a Fit of Anger—Leaves
Wife and Ten Children.

Burlington, Oct. 5.—John Fondroy of Lakeside, aged 55, committed suicide by hanging at 7 o'clock last evening.

He drove his family out of the house after supper and soon afterward threw a towel over the doorway, put it around his neck, stood on a chair and kicked it from under him. His family were unable to get in for some time and he died alone.

He has a wife and 10 children. He was a city carter and subject to violent fits of anger, and his habits were not of the best.

Southern Pine Region.

Of the four great lumber districts of the United States the southern pine region stands first. In it are 43 per cent of the sawmills and half the lumber men.

Coconut Oil.

Manufacturers of vegetable oils have in recent years made fortunes in Mir-selles. Coconut oil, which was formerly used only to make soap, has now been made available for cooking purposes by the use of improved methods of refining.

Poking the Fire.

Never poke a fire on top. The place to use a poker, especially when hard coal is used, is at the bottom of the grate, where the cinders and ashes obstruct the free passage of air.

BOSTONS TAKE SECOND GAME

Defeated Chicagos 5 to 2,

DINEEN WAS IN THE BOX

And White Sox Were Disheartened by Loss of Last Hope for the Championship
Pennant.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—With all hope of winning the pennant gone, the White Sox faced the Champion Boston Americans in the second game of the series yesterday. There was not such a large crowd out as there was Monday, but that was to be expected. The stimulation that a possible chance to win the flag afforded was killed when the Sox dropped the game Monday and from now on the attendance will be light.

The Chicago made a gallant struggle against great odds. The team was still in a crippled condition when it took the field for practice. George Davis, who was injured in collision with McGuire in Sunday's game at the last minute, was really in no condition to play.

With Big Bill Dineen in the box, using his spit ball, the Champions felt sure of winning.

LIPTON WILL WAIT.

May Not Be Another Challenge for Two Years—No Designer.

New York, Oct. 3.—Commodore Morton F. Plant of the Larchmont yacht club, owner of the swift seahorse yacht Ingomar and two of the steam yachts Venetia and Parthenia, arrived today on the Philadelphia, modestly blushing over 21 prizes which his racer won abroad. Commodore Plant brought with him only one of the prizes. The others were sent home on the Ingomar, which reached New London September 23.

"I saw Sir Thomas Lipton," said the yachtsman, "but our conversation was confidential, and I do not feel like revealing its nature."
"Are you going to build a defender of the American cup?" was asked.
"You know you have Capt. Charles Barr, the old rival of Capt. Sycamore, who sailed the Shamrock II, while Barr had the Columbia."

"I had better wait until I get the challenge, or my bridge might fall through with me," was his return.
The commodore was told that Burgess & Packard, of Boston, want to design a cup defender if Sir Thomas should challenge.

Grace Bond won the first heat of the three-year-old futurity, purse, $14,000 in 2:09 1/4, breaking the record of 2:10 1/4 made in 1900. Alta Axworthy, the favorite, finished second. Starter Walker announced that a new world's record had been made.

John M. won second heat of the Tennessee stake, Morning Star second.

Grace Bond won the second heat futurity, 2:09 1/4.

McCoy and Sullivan Matched Again.

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Kid McCoy and Jack (Twin) Sullivan have agreed to fight a return match in Los Angeles, Cal., during the first week of the Acot races, which begin November 24 on the Pacific coast. McCoy paid full tribute to Sullivan's ability and generalship as a fighter, but asserted he believed that in another meeting he would win more decisively. Sullivan, on the other hand, believes that the next match will result in his getting the decision quick, as he says he knows the foxy Kid better now. He ought to.

PEARY'S ARCTIC SHIP.

Three Masted Schooner Designed to Overcome Ice Perils.

The new Peary arctic ship is to be a "bald headed" three masted schooner—that is, a three master without topmasts, with rather limited sail area, but with powerful engines, says a Bangor (Me.) special dispatch.

The vessel will have a very strong frame of Virginia oak, with ceiling and planking of yellow pine. She is to be 180 feet long on top, 164 feet on the load waterline, 35 feet beam, 17 feet depth of hold and 16 feet 9 inches draft, ready for sea with 600 tons of coal in her bunkers. The bottom will be double planked, and she will be strongly reinforced at bow and stern by masses of oak timber, while the hull at the waterline will be sheathed with steel half an inch thick amidships and one inch at bow and stern. Her model will be such that the ice pressure will lift instead of pinching her.

The ship will be provided with engines of the compound condensing type, capable of developing 1,000 horsepower under natural draught and 1,400 under forced draft. Her displacement will be 1,300 tons; net register, 800.

The propeller will be two bladed, which type is better designed for arctic voyaging than the three or four bladed kind. The ship will not be fast, but will have a great cruising radius at fair speed.

SHOES GALORE FOR A PRINCE.

Why Kuropatkin Did Not Want Kaiser's
Relative at the Front.

The reason why General Kuropatkin did not want Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia at the front now seems evident, according to a Berlin special cable dispatch to the New York Times. The prince desired to carry too large an outfit.

Goods ordered by the prince in preparation for his expected journey have been arriving at Castle Glinckene. Prince Frederick Leopold's abode, is great quantities. The prince arranged to carry with him to Manchuria 254 pairs of gloves, 800 pairs of shoes, and other articles of apparel in proportion.

The embarrassment a royal prince of a foreign country with a train of attendants and an enormous quantity of baggage would cause at the front can be imagined.

A Baby Costume Ball.

Mrs. James B. Haggin introduced an innovation in Lexington (Ky.) society the other night in a baby costume ball, says the New York World. The cotton was led by Mrs. Haggin and Henry T. Duncan, Jr., dressed as were all the guests, in baby clothes. There were forty couples, the costumes representing characters such as Little Lord Fauntleroy, Baby Bunting, etc., and the favors were articles dear to children—books and dolls and toys. One of the features was the Florida sextet got up by Richardson T. Gibson.

Paint on the Button.

Hand painted buttons are to be much used in the fall and winter, says the New York Press. One charming button is made of white silk, painted with a flower. This makes a handsome decoration for a reception or bridesmaid's dress and is a button that can be used upon gowns of even more full dress distinction, such as evening toilet. For evening wear the hand painted button is set in a little rim of valencienne lace gathered round the button.
